

MANUFACTURING EXECUTIVE

Responsibilities

The successful candidate will be fully responsible for the overall Company's Purchasing Activities, Production Planning, Detailed Scheduling, Shipment Planning. You are required to support the Inventory Control for raw materials, WIP and finished products. You will also be responsible for the supervision of the entire SAP System within the Company. In addition, you will support the Logistics Division in terms of formulation of sourcing plan for raw materials.

Requirements

You should possess a Degree or Diploma in Material or Purchasing Management or Production Planning & Controls or equivalent discipline and must have at least 3 to 5 years of relevant experience. Knowledge of SAP Systems is necessary. Some knowledge in HACCP program & ISO certification will have an added advantage. You should be a self-motivated team player, fast learner and a Challenge seeker, with good interpersonal skills and as well as good negotiation skills. Good communication skills are highly valued.